

The Round Table completed its last scheduled meeting of the 2024 – 2025 season at their May 6th meeting. It was quite the festive occasion since it was proud and thrilled to celebrate its 15th anniversary of existence. The program began with foot-tapping upbeat bluegrass music by Dear MariBella and the Pigkickers, followed by a fascinating presentation of Civil War art by Civil War historian, Brad Gottfried, entitled, “The Battle of Antietam: Paintings of James Hope.” It was quite an amazing way to enjoy the last meeting before the summer break.

The 2025 – 2026 schedule of renowned Civil War guest speakers with their informative and entertaining topics begins on Tuesday, September 2nd is being finalized, and will be announced shortly. As a reminder, all meetings are usually scheduled for the first Tuesday of each month from September through May. Meetings are held at Hatch Auditorium on Caswell Beach, NC. Everyone is invited to join us and experience what all the excitement is about as this dynamic non-profit organization continues to grow. Currently, the organization has almost 1,200 members, and continues to enjoy the envious reputation of being the largest Civil War round table in the country.
